1. Ambassador gave brief (about four minutes) filmed interview February 19 to NBC television correspondent Bill BROWN.
2. Interview comprised three questions: (a) Does US assume door is open for resumption of talks in future; (b) Does postponement of talks alter US view of value of continuing them; and (c) What is US response to reports in communist press blaming US for postponement. Ambassador's responses followed guidance, and general lines of Secretary's February 18 statement.
3. Interview likely appear evening of February 20 on Huntley-Brinkley 7:00 p.m. (EST) news program.
